Celebration of 72nd Independence Day of India at the High Commission of India, Brunei Darussalam

The 72nd Independence Day of India was celebrated at the High Commission of India in Brunei Darussalam with joy and fervor.

Nagma M Mallick, High Commissioner of India to Brunei Darussalam, first unfurled the Indian Tricolour and led the singing of the National Anthem of India. Thereafter she read out the message of the President of India traditionally delivered on the eve of Independence Day. The High Commissioner also handed out prizes to the winners of the quiz competition held earlier in the year on the Champaran Satyagraha, the first non-violent civil disobedience movement led by Mahatma Gandhi in India and an early chapter in the struggle for India's independence that he led.

There was a large turnout of the Indian community including children at the Independence Day celebration.
