The Ministry of External Affairs,
Government of India.

I, as a Law-abiding citizen of India, do hereby request the above concerned Ministry to provide me the details in the regard of:

1. A report describing the reason for the cancellation of the meeting with the Congressional leaders of the United States of America, which led the International Community to question our Integrity and Secularism.
2. A report on the consequences Impacted on our Nation and the statements quoted by the International Community.
3. A report describing the responses and questions raises by the International Community regarding the Protests over CAA along with counter-response given by the above ministry to the International Community.
4. A report on the responses of the International Community over Kathua Rape and Murder Case and Kashmir Lock-Down along with the counter-responses from the concerned ministry.
5. A report of the impact on Tourism to India due to these cases.
6. A report on the International Community for issuing notices to their citizens visiting India and to their students studying in India.

7. A report on the response from the United Nations for Kashmir Lock-Down along with the counter-response from the concerned ministry.

8. A report on the response from the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation along with the counter-response from the concerned ministry.

9. A report on whether these cases are defaming our Nation in the International Community or not.

10. A report on whether India interfered in any of the internal issues of the other countries across the globe or not.

The above-asked information is solely knowledge.

I hope it will be answered.

Regards.
