INDIA-CYPRUS BILATERAL RELATIONS

India and Cyprus have been traditionally very close and friendly. Diplomatic ties between Cyprus and India were established on 10 February 1962. India had consistently supported the freedom struggle of Cyprus and subsequently Solution of the Cyprus problem, based on UNSC resolutions, international law and the EU acquis. Cyprus has consistently supported India on crucial issues including India's candidature as permanent member of the expanded UNSC, the India-US Civil Nuclear Agreement, within the NSG and the IAEA. In 2006, Cyprus assisted India in evacuation of Indians from Lebanon, under operation Sukoon. Cyprus also supported India post-Shakti series of nuclear tests, on the issues of Pulwama terrorist attack and article 370.

There have been several goodwill gestures between the two countries, marking their special regard and gratitude. On the occasion of Centenary Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, Cyprus issued two postal stamps in 1970. Mahatma Gandhi's bust, was installed next to the Parliament of Cyprus in July 1972, the only one of a foreign leader and the avenue was named "Jawaharlal Nehru" in 1983. India has also named an avenue in New Delhi in honour of Archbishop Makarios. On the occasion of Mahatma Gandhi's 150th Birth Anniversary, Government of Cyprus issued a commemorative stamp on 10 September 2019. PM Shri Narendra Modi met with President Anastasiades during the UNGA in New York on 26 September 2019 and also at CHOGM in London on 20 April 2018. Following 2014 & 2019 parliamentary elections in India, President Anastasiades, FM Kasoulides and President House of Representatives sent letters of felicitation to PM, EAM and Speaker of Lok Sabha respectively.

India has had three force commanders since the establishment of the UN Peace Keeping Force in Cyprus (UNFICYP) in 1964—Lieutenant General PS Gyani, General KS Thimayya and Major General Diwan Prem Chand. General KS Thimayya, who died in harness in 1965, was honored by a commemorative stamp and naming an avenue in Cyprus in his memory in 1966. At present, India has six members contingent in the UNPOL comprising of five civilian police officers and one officer from Indian Army.

High Level Visits:
